TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IIRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL. It is the best Tonic known. It Enriches the Blood; Invigorates the System, Restores Appetite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, causes headache or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do. DR. JAMES BROWN, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in practice, and find its action excellent all over the system, especially on the circulation of the system. Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

DR. W. N. WATERSON, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C. says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic that all others fail to equal. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

THE C. B. & Q. R. R. STRIKE.

THREE ACCIDENTS RESULT FROM EMPLOYING GREEN HANDS.

Knights Refuse to Take the Strikers' Places—Little Doing at the Stock Yards.

Freight Blockade Complete—Attempt to Disable a Train—Train Stoned.

CHICAGO, Feb. 29.—The first accident to occur on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy as the result of employing green engineers and firemen to take the places of the Brotherhood strikers took place yesterday afternoon at Naperville, Ill. The engine of passenger train No. 2, with C. F. Geyre, general foreman at Aurora, as engineer, and a fellow named Parsons as fireman, became unmanageable while backing down to the cars at the station and a collision occurred.

Acting Engineer General Foreman Geyre had his nose cut, and the temporary fireman, named Parsons, was cut on the shoulder and leg. George Clark, mail clerk, had his face cut and back injured; William Stenson, mail clerk, ankle injured; J. T. Burton, mail clerk, knee bruised; J. Foster, trainman, Aurora, arm and knee bruised.

Another accident occurred near Council Bluffs, the particulars of which reached Chicago late. It seems that Master Mechanic Brindenstein was ordered to take the Kansas City train out, and when near Pacific junction was confronted by an engine standing on a crossing. He ran his engine into it. A warrant has been sworn out for his arrest for failing to stop at the crossing. No one was hurt by the collision.

A special from Davenport, Iowa, to the Tribune says: It is reported that a railroad wreck occurred last evening on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway at Fulton junction, Ill. The report says six passengers were injured, two fatally, one of them being Mr. Wilhelm, route agent of the American Express company of Rock Island.

At a meeting of District Assembly No. 24, Knights of Labor, last night, resolutions were adopted relative to the attitude of the Knights of Labor toward the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy strikers. After reciting the fact that many rumors had been circulated regarding the willingness of the knights to aid the company in retaliation for supposed grievances against the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, a document was issued by District Assembly No. 24, protesting against any knights assisting the road in any way, and calling upon the order generally to refrain from joining hands with that great corporation. The resolutions were signed by the executive board of District Assembly No. 24.

Two hundred or more employees of the Union Stock Yards company in the Burlington division of the stock yards had little or nothing to do yesterday. A stock train, light, arrived during the early morning hours, and it was the only one that pulled over the Burlington "Y" during the day. Over a fifth of the stock received at this market comes over the Burlington railway and its branches. It has always proved to be the mainstay of buyers of export beef and sheep. Home consumers always went to the Burlington division, knowing well that the best stock in the country is raised in the section traversed by the great road. How they will manage to fill orders while the strike is on, is simply conjecture. Stock dealers in the country will also suffer heavy losses.

Six hundred freight handlers at the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy yards were laid off yesterday, and it is feared that 5,000 laborers in the lumber districts of the city, reached only by the tied-up road, will have to quit for lack of employment.

At Kansas City, Mo., a partial strike of engineers occurred on the Rock Island road, which attempted to help the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy out by hauling some of its freight cars. The Rock Island engineers on discovering this became furious, and every engine in the yard was pulled into the roundhouse, leaving a score or more freight trains on the tracks. Both the company and the employees look for a resumption of work on the understanding that the Rock Island will not repeat its attempt to assist the Burlington.

The Brotherhood engineers and firemen on the entire Chicago, Burlington & Quincy system have all quit work, except one man, and the freight blockade is complete. The company has so far met with partial success in running its passenger trains, but the freight blockade is complete.

Secretary Hayes, of the general executive board, Knights of Labor, at Philadelphia, declares that the order does not countenance knights who go to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy to take the places of Brotherhood strikers. He says Powdery is not in Chicago conferring with Arthur.

All was quiet around the Burlington yards early this morning, and from Van Buren to Twelfth street the yardmen had but little to do except to gaze at the numerous Ft. Wayne trains, which pulled in ever few moments.

At the Western avenue round house the most profound quiet prevailed this morning. The road was full of engines with no steam in any of them.

The big freight house at Polk street was deserted this morning, and a notice was posted on every door of the Canal street side to the effect that no freight would be received. No orders had been given any of the yardmen regarding the plans for to-day, but Capt. O'Donnell, of the West Twelfth street station, received a dispatch from Chief Hubbard early this morning, ordering him to detail a force at the freight yards to protect a freight train to be made up to-day and run out.

Just as the fast mail on the Burlington road was leaving the city at 8:10 o'clock, an attempt was made by unknown parties to disable the engine by putting a coupling pin in the guides. It was discovered in time to prevent the cylinder head being knocked out, and after some considerable delay the train proceeded on its way. The engine was manned by new hands. There is no material change in the situation.

At Sedalia, Missouri.

SEDLIA, Mo., Feb. 29.—An agent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy company arrived in Sedalia, yesterday to engage men to take the place of the strikers. He called upon three or four prominent Knights of Labor to assist him, but was informed that it was "not their fight." The great majority of the Sedalia Knights of Labor are in sympathy with the strikers, and are opposed to the knights interfering one way or the other. Two or three engineers who have never affiliated with labor organizations departed for Hannibal last night to take positions vacated by the strikers.

Train Stoned at Quincy.

QUINCY, Ill., Feb. 29.—The mail and express from Kansas City arrived at 7 o'clock last night, the engine in charge of Johnson, a Brotherhood engineer of the Hannibal & St. Joseph line. As the train passed through the yard, a stone was thrown through the window of the smoker. When Johnson's engine was detached from the train, the engine which was to take the train to Galesburg backed up to the train, when another stone was thrown through the window of the cab. The engineer was Sam. Williams, a man who has not been in the company's service for some years.

Before the train started three of the strikers appealed to Williams not to take the train out, but he refused to leave his engine, and opened the throttle and moved the Chicago mail and express slowly out from the depot. When the train reached the north end of the yard a volley of stones was thrown, only one of which struck the cab. The train had not proceeded far when it was discovered that the engine had been tampered with in such a way as to prevent getting up sufficient steam, but the misplaced valve-cap was soon repaired.

Burlington Agents at Pottsville.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 29.—Agents of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway were here yesterday recruiting engineers and firemen to take the places of the strikers on that road. The men were promised permanent positions under the company. One hundred and twenty men, all Reading strikers, accepted the terms, and are now awaiting transportation.

Green Hand to the Rescue.

NEW YORK, Feb. 29.—Thirty-eight men have left this city over the Pennsylvania road for Chicago to take the places of the striking engineers. They are said by regular engineers to be mostly oilers, firemen, or at best, stationary engineers.

A NOTED DUELIST DEAD.

Colonel Cash, of South Carolina, Dies of Paralysis.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 29.—Col. B. C. Cash, the famous duelist and "fire-eater," who killed Col. William M. Shannon, a prominent lawyer, in a duel in August, 1880, and who subsequently for ten days defied the entire power of the state to arrest him, died at his home in Chesterfield county, Saturday, of paralysis, aged sixty-six years. He was buried yesterday in the grounds adjoining the Cash mansion beside his son, Baggan Cash, a young desperado, who was shot and killed by a sheriff's posse five years ago while resisting arrest for the murder of the town marshal of Cheraw.

Before the abolition of slavery Col. Cash owned a large plantation and several hundred slaves. At the outbreak of the war he was one of the first in the field and commanded the Eighth South Carolina regiment at the first Bull Run. He was a bold and desperate fighter. After the war he settled upon his lands and became a planter. He was a great sporting man and owned many fine horses. He had a very quick temper and since the war has killed four men. Two of these were negroes, whom he killed for some slight provocation.

In 1880 Cash fought the famous duel with Col. Shannon. The difficulty grew out of a quarrel between the ladies of the two families regarding the division of some property. Col. Shannon, although an old man, accepted Cash's challenge and was shot through the heart. The people of the state condemned this duel so severely that shortly afterwards the legislature passed the anti-dueling law, putting the duelist on the same footing with an ordinary murderer.

The Cash-Shannon duel was therefore the last which will probably ever be fought in this state.

Canadian Murderer Hung.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 29.—Robert Neil, who in January 18, 1887, murdered Prison Guard John Rutledge at the Toronto Central prison, where Neil was serving a term on a charge of larceny, was hanged in the jail yard at 9:05 o'clock this morning. At the scaffold Neil made a short speech in which he said that he had not meant to kill the guard; he had nothing against him; he had been treated like a dog at the broom shop where he was employed, and did not know what he was doing when he struck the fatal blow. He expressed his sorrow and hoped for forgiveness.

General Butler on the Fishery Treaty.

BOSTON, Feb. 29.—The Journal prints a long interview with Gen. Butler upon the subject of the fishery treaty in which, after discussing its provisions in detail, the general says: "This treaty is simply as was the treaty of Washington of 1871, and the Halifax arbitration of the fishery question—a surrender of the rights of the United States and the dignity and power of her people to the social influences at Washington of the British aristocracy."

Commercial Union With Canada.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 29.—Mr. Armstrong, member of parliament, has given notice to the house of commons that on Wednesday he would make a motion to the effect that in the opinion of the house commercial union with the United States would be mutually advantageous to both countries, and it is the duty of the government to use all proper means to secure such union.

Blowing Up an Ice Gorge.

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., Feb. 29.—An ice gorge nearly a mile long and from three to six feet thick blocks the Housatonic river, endangering the dam and other property. It is now being blown up with dynamite, and it will take three days to complete the work. The water has overflowed and the neighboring cellars are flooded.

Thirty-One Rounds.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 29.—A light-weight named Sullivan, of Buffalo, and a local fighter, Billy Davenport, formerly of Cincinnati, under the alias of Kelly, fought thirty-one rounds, Queensberry, here yesterday for the gat's receipts. About one hundred sports witnessed the battle. Davenport won in the thirty-first round.

THE MILLS TARIFF BILL.

A REPRESENTATIVE INTERVIEWED CONCERNING IT.

War Telegraph Operators to Get Honorable Discharges—Welcome News for Many So-Called Deserters—Other House Notes—Proceedings in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—A Republican member of the house committee on ways and means, explained to a representative of the United Press this afternoon, why there was not a meeting of the committee this morning, and why the tariff bill prepared by the majority was not forthcoming in these words:

"A short time after Chairman Mills, yesterday afternoon, invited the members to a meeting of the committee this morning, he notified us that the bill would not be ready to be laid before the committee until Thursday, as the public printer had sent him word that the bill and accompanying statistics could not reach the capitol before this afternoon, and that the majority of the committee wanted to go over the bill and data once more before finally laying them before the full committee. I understand that the bill and accompaniments will be handed to the majority this evening, but that the Republican members will not receive them before Thursday, when another effort is to be made to have a meeting."

The house committee on military affairs have agreed to a favorable report on the bill which grants an honorable discharge to the telegraph operators who served in the late war. The bill was amended in many particulars, and among the amendments is one which provides that no further compensation shall be granted operators, nor shall they receive any pension.

Mr. Steele as a sub-committee man reported to the full committee favorably his bill which authorizes and directs the secretary of war to correct the military records of all who served in the late war for the Union, and who are now recorded through technicality as deserters, but who absented themselves from their commands with no intention of becoming deserters.

The measure, Mr. Steele says, covers all deserving cases, and does not let in any bounty jumpers or real deserters. He will report to the house this bill, together with all private bills to remove the charge of desertion from military record of individuals, and while recommending the passage of the former, will recommend that all of the latter be laid on the table indefinitely.

Mr. Steele also favorably reported to the full committee the bill placing certain volunteer officers of the late war, who by reason of wounds or sickness were prevented from completing their service, on the same footing as those who served their full time for which they enlisted. This will grant the officers of this class extra pay, but at the rate allowed privates.

Chairman Tillman, of the special committee of the house to investigate the Reading railroad strike, was asked this afternoon by a United Press representative when his committee would have another meeting and he replied: "In about a month. It will take at least three weeks to get a full copy of the testimony taken by the stenographer; then there must be some documentary evidence prepared and the whole printed before there is any necessity for the committee meeting. I think we will have our recommendations to the house ready within five or six weeks."

The house committee on Indian affairs has agreed to report favorably the bill granting to the Indians, Clarks Fork & Coake City Railroad company, the right of way through the Crow Indian reservation.

It also agreed to report favorably the bill to restore to the public domain a part of the Uintah Indian reservation, in the territory of Utah, and for other purposes.

The house committee on commerce has referred back to the sub-committee the Glover telegraph bill for further action. The sub-committee recommended an amendment which the full committee was unwilling to agree to.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—Senator Sherman has reported favorably from the finance committee the bill to authorize the secretary of the treasury to invest in bonds 80 per cent. of the fund held for the redemption of National bank notes. Senator Sherman separated from this bill and reintroduced as a separate proposition the bill to authorize National banks to issue circulation to the par value of bonds deposited.

The senate has passed the bill for the erection of an addition to the New Orleans post office building.

The senate at 2 o'clock resumed discussion of the dependent pension bill.

HE MURDERED HIS MOTHER.

Johnnie Beall, of Eaton, Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Life.

EATON, O., Feb. 29.—The closing scene in the horrible Beall murder, that occurred in the afternoon of June 13, took place Monday morning in the criminal court, before Judge Fred Van Derveer, by the appearance of John A. Beall, aged thirteen years, in court and asking to retract his plea of not guilty to murder in the first degree, and entering his plea of guilty to murder in the second in the killing of his mother, Mrs. Nancy Beall, aged fifty-one years, which was accepted.

The judge, after hearing the boy make his plea, asked him if he had anything to say. He replied that he had not, and was then sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary during his natural life. He received the sentence without the least change of countenance, and maintained the same stoical indifference that has characterized his every movement since the perpetration of the shocking murder.

OPERA HOUSE BURNED.

Union Square Theater, New York, Destroyed—Firemen Burned.

NEW YORK, Feb. 29.—A fire broke out about 1 p.m. on the top floor of the Union Square theater. It burned its way down into the theater. There was a panic among the guests at the Morton house, but it is said that nobody was hurt.

Six firemen fell from the balcony into the pit in the Union Square theater. One had both legs broken. Two men are reported to have been cut off from escape. The firemen were also badly burned. It is thought Assistant Foreman Liddy, who had both his legs broken, will not survive. Nothing is yet known about the two firemen reported missing. The Union Square theater is totally wrecked.

The loss by the fire is now estimated to be about $350,000.

Three Children Burned Alive.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 29.—The Journal's St. Cloud, Minn., special, says: Terrible news was brought here this morning from Fair Haven, near here, to the effect that last night, while a farmer named Miller and his wife were at church, their house burned down, together with three children, aged thirteen, ten and seven, who had been locked in. ### Nesbit's Pistol Bill.

If some of the editors who are harping about Nesbit's pistol bill now pending in the Legislature will look into the matter a little closer they will find they are away off as to its limit and provisions. It will not prevent the hardware merchant from selling pistols, except to minors, yet the impression has gotten abroad that the measure absolutely makes it unlawful to sell a pistol to any one. Such is not the case as may be seen by a glance at the bill. It is as follows:

"If any person shall carry concealed a deadly weapon upon or about his person, other than an ordinary pocket-knife, or shall sell a deadly weapon to a minor, other than an ordinary pocket-knife, such person shall, upon conviction, be fined the sum of one hundred dollars."

The bill is a good one and should be passed. It is a much better law than that now on the Statutes, and one which will be oftener enforced.

FLEMING COUNTY doesn't want any of Rowan in "her'n," and has let the Legislature know it. What is to become of Rowan?

THE petition of W. W. Patterson, Mayor of Ashland, Boyd County, relative to appropriations for public buildings has been filed in the House by Congressman George M. Thomas. Also a bill for the relief of Georgia A. Stricklett.

With the new track-laying machine now being used it is expected the road will be completed and ready for business by the 15th of next April.

Stock and Crops.

The wise farmer will not devote too much of his land to tobacco this year. He will not fail to grow a good crop of corn and potatoes.

In Kentucky eighteen counties report an average of 23 per cent. farms mortgaged; eight report farm mortgages on the increase and ten on the decrease.

Texas has camels, both wild and tame. They were imported in 1852, to be used in transportation across the continent to the Pacific coast. They did not prove adapted to this work, and a great many were turned loose to run wild, and have bred in the wilder parts of the State in considerable numbers.—American Cultivator.

Auctioneer G. C. Goggin reports the following sale of N. S. Wood's personal property, February 25th: One horse, $97.75; one horse, $143.50; one yearling colt, $67.00; one yearling mule, $24.75; one old cow, $5.00; one cow and calf, $39.00; one sow and five pigs, $17.75; two calves, $7.15; one wagon, $43.50; one sheep, $2.00.

Persons purposing standing stallions and jacks during the present season will find in the WEEKLY BULLETIN the best means of communicating their intentions to the people of Mason and adjoining counties. Horse cards, circulars, etc., gotten up on short notice, in the most approved style. A full line of nice cuts kept on hand. Call or write for terms.

One hundred and five sons of Rysdyk's Hambletonian have sired 512 trotters that have made records of 2:30 or better, and his daughters are the dams of fifty horses in the 2:30 list. His sons that have sired ten or more 2:30 trotters are: George Wilkes, 60; Happy Medium, 39; Volunteer, 27; Electioneer, 26; Strathmore, 22; Harold, 19; Dictator, 18; Aberdeen, 15; Messenger Duroc, 15; Edward Everett, 13; Jay Gould, 13; Masterlode, 10; Sweepstakes, 10. No other sire of trotters begins to make such a showing as this, Hambletonian being far ahead of all rivals, both in the matter of sons that have sired 2:30 trotters and daughters that have produced them.

The Department of Agriculture, in its report on the stock of the country, estimates the number of horses in Kentucky at 390,000, valued at over $28,000,000. The average valuation in Kentucky is only $72 per head, against an average of $107 per head in Massachusetts. The report also says that in nearly all parts of Kentucky farmers are devoting more attention than ever before to the improvement of the quality of their live stock of all kinds, but particularly the horse. The great boom in blooded stock which has been rising and culminating in Central Kentucky during the past decade is now rapidly extending to all other parts of the State, even to the mountains.

The paper carriers in this town are either too poor or rich to deliver their papers of late. They either have two or three small boys or a descendant of Africa to about half deliver them, and consequently subscribers are beginning to get worn out with such work.

'Squire Beasley has always made it a point to never charge for certifying to and making out pension vouchers, considering that those who went out and fought for the privileges he enjoys has amply repaid him for all services in this direction. The 'Squire is the soldiers' friend.

The last guesses on the wood at drug store are summed up as follows: 'Squire Beasley, sour wood; John Purdon, Sr., poplar yaller; Bayless Farley, prickly ash; Austin Holmes, of Maysville, slippery elm; J. P. Wallace, quince; Tom Madigan, Irish blackthorn. We will say that the guessers are all off. The wood is osage, imported from Kansas by Geo. W. Schiltz.

"Are you a Kentuckian?"

"Not much."

"I thought you was a Kentucky farmer just going along ready to deport to home, as they are generally three weeks in the road and one-fourth fluttering, when they leave town."

The above is a dialogue we heard carried on between a Kentuckian an Ohioan the other day, the questioner being from Kentucky.

John P. Purdon, Sr., served two or three terms as Trustee and was always complimented as a reliable man of the community in the township, accommodating and courteous, and always looking to public interest. That is the kind of a man who should be elected to office, one who will dispense justice according to law and evidence without fear or favor. Mr. Purdon is before the people as a candidate for Mayor, at the April election, and it goes without saying that he will make a No. 1 official.

A California Ferry Boat's Boiler Explodes With Fearful Results.

VALLEJO, Cal., Feb. 29.—The ferry steamer Julia, plying between south Vallejo and Valley station, Cal., exploded her boiler yesterday while seventy people were aboard. Thirty or forty people were killed or drowned, and the steamer burned and sank.

Eight of the men killed by the explosion of the steamer Julia had wives and families, and five more were single. Searchers are at work on the wreck, trying to find more missing men. Mrs. Ferriere, wife of a gunner at Mare Island navy yard, seems to have been the only woman on board. She was badly scalped about the head and arms. The list of unrecovered bodies is now thought to number eleven. It is supposed that, exclusive of the crew, there were fifty-two passengers on board, making sixty-three in all, and not a single one escaped without injuries, more or less serious.

"SECOND STORY" THIEVES.

HOW THEIR DARING ROBBERIES ARE GENERALLY CARRIED OUT.

Jobs That Are Done Only After Careful Planning—Jewelry the Peculiar Plunder of the "Second Story" Thief—Rarely Caught at Work.

The most effective work at present among those who steal for a living, is being done by what is technically known to the trade as "second story" men. Robberies by this class of thieves have become alarmingly frequent, and there have been many cases reported to the police, few of which have been made public, because the thieves have not been caught and it is the policy of the police department to keep everything quiet when success has not attended their efforts. "Second story" thieves have been under "cover" for a long while, and this city has been free from their depredations. Where they have come from so suddenly is a mystery.

Their work is first class and they must be good men, experts in their line. Their efforts are characterized by a boldness and dash that must make old "Troy" Dennis smile in his grave. "Troy" is still treasured in the minds of thieves, as well as detectives, as the king of the "second story" workers. He was cool, daring and brave, and had a chivalrous strain that would not permit him to injure any one weaker physically than himself. He died with his boots on. While climbing a pillar in Fifteenth street he loosened a heavy stone, and it fell on him and flattened him out like a piece of paper.

After Dennis the famous men are Long John Garvey and "Jack" Reilly, the leader of the Murray Hill gang. Garvey walked through a skylight in Brooklyn and had the flesh pretty well scraped from his bones, and was killed. Reilly did a neat job in "cleaning out" a Lexington avenue house. He took the stolen goods back for a reward. The amount did not suit him and he removed the goods again. It will be many years yet before he can practice his profession. He is now making shoes for the state. With this trio out of the way New Yorkers have been able for several years to enjoy a dinner in comfort without feeling nervous about their treasures in the upper stories.

A GOOD "SECOND STORY" MAN.

"Second story" thieves are technically described as a cross between a burglar and a sneak thief. They are usually tall, slim fellows, possessed of great strength and nerve. They take pride in their calling and look upon a highwayman or pickpocket as beneath their notice. Comparatively few thieves have the grit to follow this line. Their number is thus limited, and they become well known and respected by the fraternity. They are known as the "long chance" men in the thieves' vocabulary. They are all quick witted and intelligent and do not have the brutal instinct of many kinds of thieves who go around with murder in their hearts. There is a fellow feeling among them and they never "squeal."

"Second story" jobs are not done by rash impulse, but only after careful study and planning. Sometimes there are two partners, but more often three. It is a rare thing for them to work alone, unless they turn up in a strange place. One of the gang makes a special business of locating places to be robbed. He picks out a house with a front stoop and portico, or heavy stone work around the front door, or else where there is a leader, piazza or some other arrangement that will give a foothold in the rear. The business of the occupant is looked into. Brokers are considered the best prey and bankers come next. Jewelry is the peculiar plunder of these thieves. Sometimes their attention is attracted by the names and descriptions of jewelry worn at social gatherings. The habits of the inmates of the house are studied with great care and a note is made of the number of servants and their method of working. When any of the family leave the house a "piper off" takes a good look at the jewelry. All this takes time. When enough has been found to indicate that it will pay the house is said to be "planted" and a time is set for the work. Winter, when night comes on early and quickly, is the "second story" man's season. The "piper off" never does the stealing, as he may have been seen in the neighborhood and could be identified. At dusk the thief approaches the house. He knows what the people within are doing in a general way. The song that sounds for dinner is the signal for the "climber" to slip on his rubbers, if he has not already put on a pair of shoes with rubber soles. The lookout is stationed close at hand to give the thief warning after he has got inside.

FINE WORK WITH A "JIMMY."

Time is given for the family to get thoroughly interested in the good things before them, and then the thief, with a glance in every direction, starts on his journey. Thieves are bold, of course, but they never, it is said, undertake a job without just a little quivering around the heart at the beginning.

The climber follows the plan which has been previously marked out as the easiest way of gaining admittance, either in front or 'e'er. With soft, stealthy, catlike movements he goes up to the second story, sometimes jumping, and then raising his body with his hands and arms. If the window is locked it is only a second's work to slip the fastening with a wire. Once in the house the thief takes out a "jimmy," which is about a foot long and has a claw at one end. He takes in everything in the room at a glance. The light is usually burning dimly. He does not touch it. Bureau drawers, the doors of closets and wardrobes fly open at the touch of the jimmy, as if it were a magic wand. The thief works at high speed, with his ear listening for a footprint in the hall. There is no time to examine jewelry, and everything that sparkles or shines is taken. It is tested afterward. If a decent haul is made on the second floor the thief quietly departs as he came, but if he is not satisfied he will go higher and take his chances. Once in the street again the thief goes unconsciously away so as not to attract attention, and then gets under "cover" and waits until the robbery is stale before coming out.

"Second story" thieves are rarely, if ever, caught at work. In the olden time, when the men in this line were all known, it was usually easy to get them after a robbery. They are all new men at it now, and the police are at a loss which way to turn to capture them.—New York Tribune.

THE FIRST EXCITING DEBATE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

Will Probably be Parnell's Rent Arrears

Bill—The Actions of the Conservatives Watched With Interest—Mr. Blunt's Friends Hard at Work—Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Feb. 29.—Probably the first exciting debate in the house of commons, upon a purely Irish matter, will be the discussion of Mr. Parnell's rent arrears bill, and the Parnellites are not alone in the preparation which is making for a thorough discussion of that measure and the questions to which it will give rise.

The bill embodies some of the points, very slightly modified, which the Tories declared they were willing to concede as substitute for some of Mr. Gladstone's proposals, two years ago, and those who remember the circumstances are curious to observe the methods which the Conservatives will adopt to get around these points when they are again raised. Of course, no one believes that they will accept them now, and the general opinion is that the government opposition to the bill will be based very largely upon the contention that it is a tag to the plan of campaign.

If the Tories would take the trouble to ascertain what the plan of campaign really is, they would thus avoid placing themselves in the way of Irish ridicule while discussing it, but neither the Unionists nor the Tories—the difference between them is slight, if any—can be brought to believe that it is founded upon any loftier idea than that of robbing landlords.

The fact that the government commission has reduced rents far below the figures set by the managers of the plan of campaign, as the tenants were willing to pay, doesn't remove from the mind of a single one of the ministerial members the impression that the operation of the plan of campaign in Ireland was in a single instance justifiable, and the additional and more important fact that Mr. Parnell's bill has no chosen relation to the plan of campaign than a Yorkshire terrier has to a polar bear, will not present the measure from being defeated by Tory votes, which it will be, merely because it was proposed by an Irish member to benefit the people of Ireland.

Mr. Blunt's Friends Busy.

LONDON, Feb. 29.—The Daily News announced that Mr. Blunt's friends are informed that he has been treated with increased severity by the prison officials since his action against magistrate for assault, has excited increased activity among that gentleman's political workers in Depford, and their labors upon the feelings of the sympathetic elector began bright and early this morning in fields that were yesterday considered unfruitful.

There is certainly good reason to believe the statement true, and there is equally good reason for the belief that its publication will bring him many a vote from those who, had their indignation not been aroused by the alleged outrageous treatment meted out to Mr. Blunt, and the skillful use made of the allegations by his friends and agents, would have cast their ballots for Mr. Darling.

Charged With High Treason.

SOFIA, Feb. 29.—Two officers have been arrested at Starazagora for high treason. It is believed that Prince Ferdinand will be compelled to sanction their execution in the event of their conviction, in view of the strong public sentiment against them.

The Situation in Abyssinia.

ROME, Feb. 29.—As yet there has been no conflict between Gen. Gene and the Abyssinians. The latter, under Ras Alulu, are reported gathered in force between Alet, which they have abandoned, and Asmara.

Foreign Notes.

According to advices, the movement of troops on the Russian frontier is lessened.

The Mexican government has chartered a steamer to take troops from Mazatlan to San Benito, where Guatemalan insurgents are invading Mexican soil.

The serious condition of the crown prince is anxiously discussed in salons and society generally, where the truth is becoming known that his case is regarded as hopeless, and that he cannot live longer than a few months.

REVOLT AMONG PRISONERS.

Desperate Attempt of Three Negroes to Escape From Jail.

OLATHE, Kan., Feb. 29.—There was a revolt among the prisoners in the county jail here last evening. Deputy Sheriff Campbell was giving them their supper, when a negro desperado, Hugh McKinnis, grabbed an iron poker and made a dash for the door. Campbell dropped his tin plates and jumped after him and caught him just as he reached the door. Two other negro prisoners came to McKinnis' assistance, and made a savage onslaught on the deputy, but the latter succeeded in keeping them inside, and locking the door, he ordered them to go to their cells, but they refused to go and threatened to brain him if he unlocked the door and came inside. The sheriff was out of town, and Campbell, not wishing to take the responsibility of killing them, sent for the county attorney, while he held the fort.

When the county attorney arrived, he ordered the prisoners into their cells, but they laughed at him. They then told the sheriff to use force even to shooting them if necessary. At this time two other citizens came to the officer's assistance, and Campbell opened the door and made a rush for the desperadoes. McKinnis struck Campbell with the poker, while Green Johnson struck at Parker with a club, but Parker warded off the blow and returned a counter, which quieted his assailant. The struggle was short but decisive, and the three prisoners were soon handcuffed and locked in the cells.
